

Los Angeles Model Railroad Society

ADULT MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Adult membership in the Los Angeles Model Railroad Society is open to any person 18 years or older with an interest in trains and model railroading. After your application is submitted along with a $100.00 application fee and your 1st month's dues of $35.00, your application will be reviewed by the LAMRS Membership Committee. When your application is approved, and a mentor is assigned, you become a probationary member. During the probation period (minimum 3 months) you get to know us and we get to know you. We want you to be involved in all the club activities and have as much fun as possible.

If a probationary member is not voted to Associate status following the probation period, or, if a probationary member decides to resign of their own accord prior to the end of the probation period, their application fee shall be refunded. Any dues paid during the probation period will not be refunded by LAMRS.
