

Los Angeles Model Railroad Society

A Non-Profit Public Benefit Corporation

Adult Membership Application

Adult membership in the Los Angeles Model Railroad Society (LAMRS) is open to any person, 18 years or older, with an interest in trains and model railroading. After you submit your application we will review it, and upon approval, you will become a Probationary Member. During the probation period (minimum 3 months) you will get to know us and we will get to know you. We want you to be involved in all of the club's activities and have as much fun as possible. You should plan on attending the business meetings via Zoom on the first Tuesday of the month (7:00 p.m.) and the work or run sessions on the other Tuesday evenings, usually 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

If a probationary member is not voted to Associate Member status following the probation period, or, if a Probationary Member decides to resign of their own accord prior to the end of the probation period, any application fees shall be refunded. Dues will not be refunded by LAMRS.

Return the completed Membership Application, along with the Application Fee ($50) and 1st month dues ($45).
